

Tour Vermont's Breweries, Wineries and Cideries!

The Green Mountain State, known for great skiing, awesome hiking, spectacular foliage, and romantic country inns is also the home of some of the best breweries, wineries and cideries in the country. Vermonters know how lucky they are to live in a beautiful state, where fine handcrafted beer, unique fruit wine and hard cider are as plentiful as maple syrup. Now you can experience the unique qualities that make Vermont beverages so special.

Use this one-of-a-kind tour map to plan your next trip around Vermont. Take a tour of a brewery or winery and learn the art and science behind craft brewing and winemaking. You may even meet the brewmaster, vintner or owner. Pick up some novelty items in the gift shop, then head over to a brew pub for a delicious meal. Make a reservation at one of Vermont's cozy inns and B&Bs and enjoy a truly romantic weekend. Vermont's breweries, wineries and cideries also offer unique experiences for your next family reunion, wedding, convention, or corporate event in Vermont. Consider the following activities:

- Organize a group tour of a brewery or winery
- Host a rehearsal dinner at a brew pub
- Give Vermont beer, wine or cider as a unique party favor
- Have a pizza and beer birthday party in a brewery
- Hold your wedding in a vineyard
- Use beer, wine or hard cider in your recipes

Vermont's Breweries, Wineries & Cideries

...as well as some great places to stay!

A vital part of the state's economy, Vermont's breweries, brew pubs, wineries and cideries employ hundreds of people and provide a substantial source of tax revenue for the state. Many of these businesses are also involved with community service and special events that support local and state-wide nonprofit organizations.
